Sub - Judge.

Mangalore,
21st Jan, 1949.

Sri I. Ananda Shetty, B.A.,B.L., has been practising in my Court since about 3½ years. I have found quite intelligent, industrious and smart. He has a sound knowledge of law and can put his case neatly and forcibly. He comes of a very respectable family and is well connected, being the son-in-low of the late Dewan Bahadur Mahabala Hegde, Public Prosecutor and Government Pleader of this place. His conduct and character have been exemplary so far as I know. I have no doubt he will acquit himself with credit in any post of trust and responsibility he may be appointed to.

Official Receiver – S. Kanara – Part time official Receiver — Appointment of.

From the High Court, R.O.C. No 7434/52-B1 d 4-12-1952

(J) In G.O.MS.No. 1210, Home, dated 2.4.1952 it was ordered that the system of appointment of part time official receivers should be introduced forthwith as an experimental measure in the districts in which there is a vacancy in the post of official receiver at present and in the other districts as and when vacancies arose.

In accordance with the above orders the High Court has now forwarded proposals for appointment of part time official receiver in the district of South Kanara.

2. In September 1952 the High Court recommended one Sri. S. Gopalakrishna, Advocate, Mangalore for appointment as temporary official receiver, S. Kanara in the vacancy caused by the re-appointment of Sri A.M. D'Sa as District Munsif. The Govt. did not agree with the recommendation of the High Court. As it was only a temporary appointment it was ordered that Sri. K. Balakrishna Rao, the other applicant might be appointed. Pending a decision on the question of reversion to the old system of appointment of part-time official receivers, Sri K. Balakrishna Rao was accordingly appointed to act temporarily as official receiver, S. Kanara – please see G.O. MS 4179, Home, d. 25.9.1950. He now continues as temporary official receiver, S. Kanara.

3. The following three persons have applied for temporary appointment of part-time official receivers

1. Sri. K. Balakrishna Rao, B.A. LLB.
2. Sri. Ananda Shetty Jirnady. B.A., B.L.,
3. Sri. A. Narayan Rao, B.A., L.L.B.,

Their applications are at pp 3-15 of the Dt. Judge recommends for appointment Sri. K. Balakrishna Rao, the present temporary official Receiver. The High Court supports the recommendation of the Dt. Judge.

For orders whether the recommendation of the High Court may be accepted. If so, the relevant rules relating to the Madras Judicial Ministerial Service Rules may be relaxed in his favour.

Public (Ser) and Finance may see.

The High Court has not forwarded the recommendation of the Dt Judge referred to in its letter at p 1-c. However, as the person recommended is already the O.R. at the place since 1950 he is probably the most suitable of the applicants. High court's recommendation may be accepted.

13.12.1952

The High Court are agreed as the nominee. He also approved
